

Dear student,

The information in this document is extremely important for you. If you ignore any of the information written in this document by mistake or willingly, there will be legal complications that you might need to face in the future.

During the placement season, there are 2 types of students:

1. Those who get a job offer (placement or PPO or any other source), inform us about their offer and complete all the legal formalities with our team.
2. Those who do not get a job offer or do not inform us about their job offer due to any reason.

After a few months, Placewit will hand over the details of all the students to the legal team to verify the information provided by the students. In that process, the legal team will ask every student to submit specific documents, which include, but are not limited to PAN card (permanent account number), ITR, Form 16 etc. These documents will be used to check your current and all past jobs/internships by the legal team.

Due to any reason, if any student provides us false information, tries to misguide us with wrong information about their job, or does not provide the documents requested by the legal team, he/she will be liable for the following consequences:

1. He/she will need to pay the complete course fee of 1.75L to Placewit (irrespective of placement or placement CTC).
2. Placewit might ask him/her to pay a fine of up to 1L for misguiding and doing fraud, to cover our legal fee and any other expenditure related to the student.
3. In some cases, a legal case might be registered for fraud, which is a legal offence and can result in legal prosecution as well as getting fired from your company.

Keeping in mind the above legal complications, it is our strict advice to all the students to kindly follow our rules and guidelines. Please do not take legal matters lightly in any scenario. It might affect your career and your life ahead. Be responsible for your future.

Regards,

Team Placewit
